Date of entry 12/20/2023

[redacted] date of birth [redacted] phone number [redacted] identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] worked for [redacted] some time between September and October. She worked Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm. At the time, she was taking care of an elderly person and was contacted by someone about the job with [redacted] She went to an eyewear store near Dollar General and provided her drivers license and was given a W2 form and other paperwork. [redacted] was paid by a visa card every two weeks. She did not recall how much she was paid but it was based on the amount of hours she worked. She did not file taxes on the money she made working for the company.

[redacted] was dropped off at different stores like Save A lot, Family Dollar, and liquor stores and would ask people as they entered the store whether they were registered to vote. A van would drop off people at the stores. The employees had a goal for each day with regards to how many voter registration forms were completed. There were no incentives for producing a certain amount of forms.

[redacted] thought people might be forging signatures because the younger employees would return with a lot of signed registration forms and she would only have three or four for the entire week. [redacted] id not forge signatures on the voter registration forms. The supervisors told [redacted] what they were doing was cleared with the Secretary of State.

The employees would return signed voter registration forms to the main office and there would be a paper with their names on it and they would tally how many forms they turned in. [redacted] never heard about incentives for producing more registration forms from the supervisors. [redacted] confirmed it was her handwriting and her signature on the Canvasser Contract attached as a 1A.
