James Ostrowski

- James Ostrowski is a trial and appellate lawyer from Buffalo, New York.
- Graduate of Brooklyn Law School in 1983.
- His articles have appeared in the Wall Street Journal, Buffalo News, Cleveland Plain Dealer and Legislative Gazette.
- His policy studies have been published by the Hoover Institution, the Ludwig von Mises Institute, and the Cato Institute.

Today's Agenda

- Overview of legal efforts in New York State.
- Discussion of applicable legal strategies for parents.
- Overview of Complaint Template for use by parents.

And we'll take questions from you!

Basic Parts of a Complaint

- Jury demand
- Jurisdictional allegations
- A description of the parties
- The basic facts of the complaint. Who did what to whom, when, where and why.
- A complaint should be detailed but not too detailed. A pro se complaint will be given less scrutiny than a complaint drafted by an attorney.
- “Cause of action” this is a term of art meaning the legal theory underlying your claim. Under 42 USC 1983, your cause of action can be based on the federal Constitution or federal statutes.

Basic Parts of a Complaint

The anti-mask lawsuit is based on a variety of constitutional provisions including:

- First Amendment—Freedom of Speech
- Fourth Amendment—Unlawful seizure—violation of personal integrity
- Fifth Amendment—due process
- Ninth Amendment—fundamental right to liberty
- Fourteenth Amendment—equal protection, due process, fundamental rights
- Guarantee of republican government—mask mandates must be passed by the legislature if at all.
- Claim for relief. You will demand all available relief—money damages, injunction, declaratory judgment, attorneys fees.

- Your Questions & Comments
 - Type questions into the Chat.
 - Ask anything!
 - Give us your feedback.
